

"RESPONSE": TO NOTICE OF DEBTORS' NINTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN(I) LATE CLAIMS AND(II)LATE 503(B)(9) CLAIMS.

To Judge HUENEKE and or to whom it may concern,

I am responding and disputing your decision to disqualify my claim based on "untimely filing."

Please strongly consider the fact that I am a mere consumer. And as such, was not given the privilege of being made aware of the Circuit City bankruptcy, or any filing deadlines until they had already taken place.

I was not granted any notice for filing prior to the deadline. I was not served notice, or in any way otherwise informed. (as is stated on the "Llc hotline" that --"all creditors were informed by notice prior to the deadline".)

(AS YOU KNOW THE PUBLIC WAS NOT PRIVY TO THIS INFORMATION)
Therefore I should strongly be considered as an exception to its enforcement.

It wasn't until January 14th, having incidentally walked by a coffee shop with the local news on, that I became aware of the "official" bankruptcy, well after the filing deadline.

Then, having heard this, I resumed fervently trying to resolve my issue with the merchant, where the store personnel strung me along with false promises until the chains were on the doors. And thus I found my only recourse to be reluctantly forced into these proceedings. At that point I had to educate myself rapidly as to how to file this claim.

I am respectful of the magnitude of this case, however, as a mere consumer, my claim represents a relatively substantial loss. As I never received the merchandise I paid Circuit City for. And they detoured me until they ultimately refused to provide me a proper refund, or a proper receipt for the refund they insisted they had already made. I'm out over $2,500.00.

Also, in January, the merchant insisted that despite some rumors of Circuit City possibly closing some stores, that "their store (Burbank) would most definitely not be affected." This again, causing me to forfeit my rights to file a claim by a deadline. And as you can surely understand, filing a claim in a corporate bankruptcy case wouldn't normally seem necessary, or even appropriate in my case, until I was ultimately forced to do so.

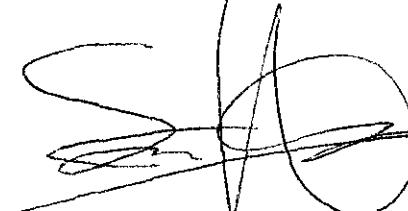

Furthermore, once I HAD filed, I invested consistent time following up on it, and was advised by the reps handling the claims, that there was no further action I could take outside of having filed, and awaiting a decision in writing some months later. But this very notice of objections didn't arrive to my mailbox until July 12th 09, apparently after the proposed deadline for this response!!

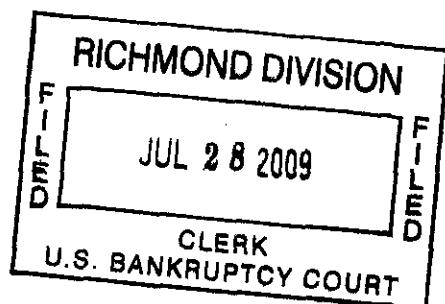

Please take careful consideration to these facts before lumping me in with the corporate creditors, which probably were notified appropriately. I wasn't.

Thank You,

Sincerely

SCOTT WARREN

Procedures for Filing a Timely Response and Information Regarding the Hearing on the Omnibus Objection

Contents. Each Response must contain the following (at a minimum):

1. a caption setting forth the name of the Bankruptcy Court, the name of the Debtors, the case number and the title of the Omnibus Objection to which the Response is directed;

2. the claimant's name and an explanation for the amount of the Claim(s);
3. a concise statement setting forth the reasons why the Bankruptcy Court should not sustain the Omnibus Objection, including, without limitation, the specific factual and legal bases upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Omnibus Objection;
4. a copy of any other documentation or other evidence of the Claim, to the extent not already included with the Claim, upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Omnibus Objection at the hearing;
5. a declaration of a person with personal knowledge of the relevant facts that support the Response; and
6. your name, address, telephone number and facsimile number and/or the name, address, telephone number and facsimile number of your attorney and/or designated representative to whom the attorneys for the Debtors should serve a reply to the Response, if any (collectively, the "Notice Addresses"). If a Response contains Notice Addresses that are different from the name and/or address listed on the Claim, the Notice Addresses will control and will become the service address for future service of papers with respect to all of your Claims listed in the Omnibus Objection (including all Claims to be reclassified) and only for those Claims in the Omnibus Objection.

Additional Information. To facilitate a resolution of the Omnibus Objection, your Response should also include the name, address, telephone number and facsimile number of the party with authority to reconcile, settle or otherwise resolve the Omnibus Objection on the claimant's behalf (the "Additional Addresses"). Unless the Additional Addresses are the same as the Notice Addresses, the Additional Addresses will not become the service address for future service of papers.

Failure to File Your Timely Response. If you fail to file and serve your Response on or before the Response Deadline in compliance with the procedures set forth in this Notice, the Debtors will present to the Bankruptcy Court an appropriate order granting the relief requested in the Omnibus Objection without further notice to you.

Each Objection Is a Contested Matter. Each Claim subject to an Omnibus Objection and the Response thereto shall constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 9014, and any order entered by the Bankruptcy Court will be deemed a separate order with respect to such Claim.

Additional Information

Requests for Information. You may also obtain a copy of the Omnibus Objection or related documents on the internet, by accessing the website of Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, the claims, noticing and balloting agent for the Debtors in these bankruptcy cases at www.kccllc.net/circuitcity.

Reservation of Rights. Nothing in this Notice or the Omnibus Objection constitutes a waiver of the Debtors' right to assert any claims, counterclaims, rights of offset or recoupment, preference actions, fraudulent-transfer actions or any other claims against you of the Debtors. Unless the Bankruptcy Court allows your Claim(s) or specifically orders otherwise, the Debtors have the right to object on any grounds to the Claims (or to any other Claims or causes of action you may have filed or that have been scheduled by the Debtors) at a later date. In such event, you will receive a separate notice of any such objections.
